

the 2011 Workshop is Coming

The largest youth soccer convention in the country is coming to Louisville February 24-26, 2011.

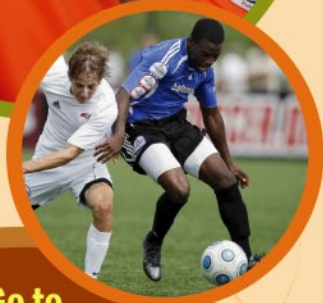

Coaches, referees and administrators from all levels of soccer will meet in Louisville for over 90 workshops and demonstrations.

Register Early Online starting September 1 and Save Big!

Registration Fees

Early Registration ends December 15, 2010 (save 50%)	$100
Regular Registration ends February 1, 2011 (save 25%)	$150
February 2-10, 2011 online only	$200
February 24-26, 2011 onsite	$200

Go to USYouthSoccer.org for more information!

The largest youth soccer convention in the country is coming to Louisville February 24-26, 2011.

Sample Sessions:

- Combination Play in the Attacking Third
- Principles of Midfield Play
- TOPSoccer Coaching
- US Youth Soccer ODP-The International Experience
- The Non-Profit Board
- Human Resource Management
- Implementing Respect in Your Referee Program
- Recent Trends in Risk Management
- Do's and Don'ts of Field Building

Exhibit Hall

See the future products of soccer.

One-on-one conversations and meeting opportunities.

Coaching

Nationally recognized coaches lead sessions on the field and in the classroom.

Administrators

Leaders in club/league management seek to further all programs. Learn to be more efficient and better prepared.

Referees

Improve your match management and further your understanding of retention and growing referee programs.

Awards

Celebration recognizing coaches, volunteers and more who give to the game.

